The panel concluded from the supporting documentation, that the proposed inspectors had the required level of general training and awareness to justify a positive decision.

Ultramag Inspection Services Ltd have therefore, been granted a probationary registration status for the technical scope detailed above. The probationary registration has the following conditions:

New applications - General conditions of probationary registration.

1. ADIPS probationary registration will last for six months from the date of this letter.
2. You will either use your own Quality Management System (QMS) or adopt the ADIPS generic QMS and submit a copy to ADIPS prior to the end of the probationary period.
3. You will ensure that you are in possession of an inspection procedure which has been provided to ADIPS prior to the inspection of any device.
4. You will submit copies of the first 2 reports for desktop review by ADIPS appointed auditors.
5. You will ensure all inspection reports related to the above technical scope and completed during the probationary registration period are provided to ADIPS within 28 days of the inspection work carried out.
6. ADIPS will arrange a compliance audit by their appointed auditors during the probationary period that will consist of:
  - a. a review of a sample of your inspection procedures and inspection reports related to the above technical scope and completed during the probationary registration period, and;
  - b. a witness assessment of an inspection of a device.
7. It will be confirmed to you when the probationary registration requirements have been met and you have qualified for full registration.

ADIPS reserve the right to suspend or extend the probationary period if these conditions are not achieved. Further details are also found in ADIPS Inspection Scheme Document Issue 009 (dated March 2020).

Please sign the attached duplicate of this letter and return it to me confirming that you are accepting the conditions of probationary registration.

Welcome back to ADIPS. I look forward to working with you in the future.

Yours sincerely

Carl Hagemann
General Manager
